APPLICATION FORM 2023

Te Rito o Rotowhio
(National Weaving School)

INTRODUCTION

We are now seeking applications for
Te Rito (National Weaving School).

Applicants must be of Māori descent, aged 18 years or over and be able to demonstrate a competency in Māori art and/or design and have an ability and willingness to interpret and understand the theory component of this qualification.

To maintain the standard and quality of our graduates, places are strictly limited.

Applications for these positions close at 5PM, 24 March 2023.

We only accept signed original hard copies.

QUALIFICATION

Under section 15(k) of the New Zealand Māori Arts and Crafts Institute Act (1963), the New Zealand Māori Arts and Crafts Institute (NZMACI) has the ability to ‘Confer diplomas on or give certificates to any person having special training or qualifications in respect of Māori arts or crafts or Māori culture generally’.

Successful graduates of Te Rito qualification will receive a NZMACI Pōkairua (Diploma).

This qualification including a scholarship for each successful applicant is solely funded by NZMACI.

This qualification is delivered onsite at Te Puia, Rotorua, New Zealand.

REQUIREMENTS

- This is a two-year fulltime (40 hours per week) qualification. Each year of the qualification must be completed successfully to proceed into the next years study.
- Students are entitled to three study breaks between terms and one Christmas holiday break each year.
- Students are required to arrange their own accommodation and transport requirements.
- Applicants must be of Māori descent aged 18 years or over.
- Applications must be made on the form provided by NZMACI (attached). The applicant must attach all required documentation to support their application.
- Applicants may provide a portfolio of designs and/or images to illustrate their previous experience and/or skill level in support of their application.
- Please do not send originals as portfolios will not be returned.

PROCESS

- Applicants will be assessed based on information identified in the Te Rito Application for Enrolment Form and Iwi Tono Form (if applicable).
- Applications close 5pm, 24 March 2023.
- Shortlisted applicants will be contacted, and an interview arranged.
Applicants will be interviewed by a NZMACI panel comprising of the NZMACI General Manager, Tumu, Pouako and Te Puia HR and advised in writing about the outcome.
Up to two support people are welcome to attend the interview.
- Successful and unsuccessful applicants will be notified in writing.

IWI TONO

- The Iwi Tono form is only applicable if you have been nominated by your iwi to apply for entry into Te Rito.
- An iwi representative must complete the Iwi Tono form. This will be submitted in addition to a completed Te Rito Application for Enrolment Form.

SCHOLARSHIP & FEES

- There are no course fees for this qualification.
- All successful applicants will receive a NZMACI scholarship to cover tuition and assist with living costs for the duration of this qualification (these generous scholarships have been solely supplied by NZMACI).
